

August 23, 2022 • 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM

RETREAT AGENDA

|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30 – 9:00   | Registration &amp; Breakfast*                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 9:00 – 9:10   | WelcomeJulie Bastarache, MD                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 9:10 – 9:55   | KeynoteMary Margaret Chren, MD, Chair of DermatologyHow connections help build a career.                                                                                                                                     |
| 9:55 – 10:30  | Breakout: Meet the MentorsMentors will lead small group discussions on topics such as stepping into leadership roles, hiring and interviewing, managing a team, and more.                                                        |
| 10:30 – 10:45 | Coffee Break*                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 10:45 – 12:00 | Panel: Making ConnectionsStephen Patrick, MD, MPH, FAAPTodd Edwards, MS, PhDPaul Harris, PhD, FACMI, FIAHSIEstablishing collaborations, leveraging institutional resources, and connecting outside your institution. |
| 12:00 – 1:00  | Lunch*                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1:00 – 3:00   | Camp ActivitiesZiplines, archery, and pontoon boats await.Hang out and chat on the porch or in the lodge.                                                                                                                    |
| 3:00 – 3:30   | Peer MentorshipLori Coburn, MD & Meena Madhur, MD, PhD                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 3:30 – 4:15   | Speed Peer Mentoring                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 4:15 – 5:00   | The Mentor-Mentee RelationshipWhat Makes a Good Mentor? Julie Bastarache, MDWhat Makes a Good Mentee? Lorraine Ware, MD                                                                                                      |

* Gluten-free, dairy-free, nut-free, and vegetarian food options available.

BUILDING COLLABORATIONS • CREATING CONNECTIONS

Nelson Andrews Leadership Lodge • Camp Widjiwagan

